Children's Theatre at the Pinacoteca Nazionale

Corso Ercole I d'Este (Palazzo dei Diamanti)

<https://gallerie-estensi.beniculturali.it/pinacoteca-nazionale/>

Once a month, the Pinacoteca is organizing a theatre performance for children in its beautiful Salone d'Onore. Through art, music, words and dancing, these productions set out to explore the wonderful world of animals and nature, encouraging both children and adults to reflect on life on Earth and taking care of it. At the end of each performance, time is time for talking to the actors, musicians, dancers and artists.

'L'Arco di Noé'

Sunday 19th March, 5 p.m. – 6.30 p.m.

Inspired by the biblical story 'Noah's Ark', a 'new' Noah strives to save the animal kingdom from a world of climatic change and pollution. Meet the animals one by one as they set out for a cleaner and more peaceful world.

Ticket Office:

The ticket office is inside Palazzo dei Diamanti's foyer. The entrance to the Pinacoteca is inside the courtyard, in the left-hand corner.

The children's theatre is free. Visitors are asked to pay just the entrance fee to the Pinacoteca which costs €8 for adults. If you have a Coop card, Fai card or you are a student there are further discounts. Children up to the age of 18 are free.

*It is advisable to book tickets in advance for the theatre performances but it is not compulsory. For further information or to book tickets telephone Sara Piagno 0532/205844

*Opening times for the Pinacoteca: Tuesdays to Sundays (and holidays) 10 a.m. – 5.30 p.m.
Closed on Mondays.*
