

LAST MINUTE NEWS NOVEMBER 2023

Usi e costumi – Living History Fair

11th & 12th November

Via della Fiera, 11

Saturday 10 a.m. – 7 p.m. Sunday 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.

This is an exciting international fair which takes visitors on a journey through different eras in Italy as well as other countries. Discover what people used to wear and how they lived. Admire fascinating demonstrations of shoe makers, tailors, woodworkers and blacksmiths at work. Taste historical food and local delicacies while watching historical re-enactments. Gather ideas for future holidays and weekend breaks at the travel agency stands. Representatives will be on hand to present to you cultural and historical places of interest to visit in Italy and abroad.

Admission: €10 adults, children up to 14 years old €8 (bought at the entrance – not online), children up to the age of 10 are free.

'Testaperaria' Children's Book Shop

Via De' Romei, 19

For all you Harry Potter fans these arts and crafts workshops are perfect!

Wednesday 8th November at 5.30 p.m. - 'Il Castello di Hogwarts pop up' /
Hogwarts Pop Up Castle

Wednesday 15th November at 5.30 p.m. - 'Le chiave alata' / Winged Keys

Wednesday 22nd November at 5.30 p.m. - 'Edvige e la lettera segreta' /
Hedwig and the Secret Letter

Cost: €7,50

Duration: 1 hour, Suitable for 4 +

To book a place telephone: 0532 202823

‘Natalissimo’ – Christmas Fair

Saturday 18th November 9.30 a.m. – 10.30 p.m.

Sunday 19th November 9.30 a.m. – 6.30 p.m.

Ferrara Expo, Via della Fiera 11

Admission €7

Buy tickets online for €5 <https://www.natalissimoferrara.it/>

Are you one of those people who panic and buy Christmas presents all at the last minute or are you super organized and like to have everything under control way beforehand? Either way, this is the place for you! At this enormous Christmas fair you can find every kind of Christmas decoration and idea for gifts under the sun! Yes, it will get busy and hot but everything that you can possibly need is at least under one roof and your Christmas shopping can be done all in one day! This year the fair has organized a well-being area dedicated to you with products to try, consultations and tests to do as well as interactive yoga sessions and music therapy to help you relax and unwind before the next round of shopping! For children, there is a mini-petting farm, arts and crafts workshops and plenty of shows to keep them entertained. If they are lucky they may even meet Father Christmas or perhaps the Grinch!

International Games Month Italia

Biblioteca Casa Niccolini – Children’s library

Thursday 23rd November at 4.30 p.m.

Via Romiti, 13

The month of November is dedicated to playing board games and promoting the role they have in encouraging people to interact, play and have fun together. Daniele Ferri, the inventor of the card game ‘VegeTables’, will be waiting for you at this children’s library to play and supervise a variety of board games. This event is completely free so why don’t you come and play?

Autumn Evenings Food Festival – ‘Tartufo al Borgo’

24th, 25th & 26th November

Via del Melo 105, Ferrara

Open from 7.30 p.m. Sunday also at 12.30 for lunch

The savoury truffle is a popular ingredient used in many Italian regions to flavour a variety of dishes. Why don't you have lunch or dinner at this fair and taste it for yourself? An array of delicious appetizers, starters and main courses await you!

Songs for Ladies – The Swing Orchestra

30th November at 9 p.m.

‘Ridotto’ del Teatro Comunale (Held in the music rooms of the theatre)

Corso Martiri della Libertà

Making a stand to stop violence against women the Teatro Comunale has organized a special concert dedicated to ladies, in particular to female artists who have had such an impact on the jazz scene over the years such as Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald and Sarah Vaughan as well as more recent singers.

Tickets cost €3 and can be bought online at:

<https://ferraramusica.it/ferrara-musica-al-ridotto/>

Alternatively write an email to: biglietteria@ferraramusic.it

Tickets can be bought up to 1 hour before the concert.

CHRISTMAS MARKET NEWS COMING OUT SOON!

